

Call for Papers

Third BRISE Conference on Early Childhood Development
Berlin, Germany, September 26–27, 2024

The Bremen Initiative to Foster Early Childhood Development (BRISE) cordially invites you to attend the Third BRISE Conference on Early Childhood Development. As with previous conferences in this series it will be held at the Leibniz Headquarters in Berlin, Germany. This year's conference is scheduled for September 26th–27th, 2024.

Our conferences are designed to bring together up to 100 academics from all career stages invested in Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC) to share and discuss their most recent findings. We are excited to feature Kimberly Noble, Columbia University, and Mirjam Steffensky, Universität Hamburg, as the keynote speakers of the Third BRISE Conference on Early Childhood Development. This call is for the submission of a paper or poster presentation. We welcome submissions from all disciplines involved in research on early childhood development. Researchers interested in making an active contribution to the conference are invited to submit a 250-word summary of their proposed presentation via email to brise@leibniz-ipn.de by May 15th, 2024. Please indicate which type of contribution you would like to make in your submission. The summaries of accepted papers will be made available online.

We ask all those who would like to attend to register for the conference. The conference is free of charge. Information about the registration process will soon be available on the project website. Please feel free to contact us via the given email address with any questions you may have.

We would appreciate your assistance in widely distributing this open call for submissions to your networks and we look forward to seeing you in Berlin.

With kind regards on behalf of the BRISE research alliance
